

G2 FinTech Forms Advisory Board

New Entity to Provide Strategic Counsel to Governing Board of Directors

New York, July 31, 2012 – G2 FinTech, provider of tax analysis and regulatory compliance software for the investment management community, has today announced the formation of a strategic advisory board comprised of leading members of the tax, asset management, financial software and academic communities. The Advisory Board, consisting of carefully selected industry leaders, will provide guidance and counsel to the governing board of directors as G2 FinTech continues to develop software to address the complex tax issues facing the investment management space.

The Advisory Board will meet on a regular basis to contribute meaningful advice and guidance related to the current and future work at G2 FinTech. As G2 FinTech continues to strategically narrow the focus and increase the acceleration of its business, the board members will play a crucial role in guiding business direction and growth strategies.

George Michaels, CEO of G2 FinTech, comments: “I am proud to introduce such a distinguished and diverse group of professionals as members of our newly formed Advisory Board. Their industry expertise, knowledge and strategic counsel will be invaluable as we continue to grow. I am honored to have these individuals join our board and look forward to applying their unique and varied perspectives to our company’s strategic direction.”
